

BLUSPACEBERRY

your clothes are different you speak in this strange way feeling so jupiter so may it be you know how I feel

I saw you on the bus with this weird jacket on my friend said he's a weirdo you were feeling so mercury

you were a sweet blue space berry among these sour limes I knew you since the beginning of times
we grew up here but we're from elsewhere we grew up here but we're from
we grew up here but we're from elsewhere

I saw you in the forest I heard sounds from a stream I have to smile when I see your curls cause I think you know how I feel now those days are over the space is still the place our strange ways were not a phase and I will not forget you told me something jupiter and ran for the train

you were a sweet blue space berry among these sour limes

sweet blue space berry among these sour limes
I knew you since the beginning of times
